

The Business of Hate

Stuck Mojo

No debate, Shame the game
Shut 'em down in the mane of change
Those against your point of view
A homophobe, racist, or bigot to you
It all stay, we'll stay or apologize
For what In say
You're here to silence me
And I'm ready to fight
The race caretel
They need us divided
While the mainstream press
Do their best to hide it
Divide us up by our skin color
Try to make us hate each other
Silence is not my choice
So let them hear our voice

Not about practice
All about preach
Call me a bigot
If you don't like what I teach
Try to destroy me
When you don't like what I say
You are the lynch mob
You are the business of hate
Speak the lies ,Perpetuate
Make victims , teach them to hate
All of this shall seal your fate
Cry for help when it's too late
A business run on fear and blame
Times have changed but tune's the same
Don't blame your faults on me
It's on you
You're like a maggot
Feeding on the back of those you've come
To live off and the suits you've come
To rip off
Your war of hate, disguised as compassion

But out of sight the checks
They keep on cashing

Not about practice
All about preach
Call me a bigot
If you don't like what I teach
Try to destroy me
The salem witch trials
Have come back around
All afraid to make a sound
Don't tell me who I 'am
And what I believe
It all depends on you
And how you perceive, yeah

No freedom of speech
We're politically correct
Thanks to this moral defect
They tell you it's this
But it's actually that two steps upfront
Four steps back, uh
We cover and apologize 'cause we're trained to
And it won't change until we push back
The only thing they want is our silence

And they only have control
If we don't fight back

Not about practice
