

Worst Person on Earth

Stuck Mojo

Everybody knows that some story goes
A a piece of takers
With the bad pretender and chain of commander
To bring you their way but either you are stray
The prophet of fear has made it very clear
From the words of liars and the false messiahs
They preach belief, they don't believe themselves
Music, religion and Hollywood sells

You are the worst person on earth
Should have to pin that on your shirt
Many other worthy candidates
But it's a tally you're going to get
You are the worst person on the planet
When you were born here, goddamnit
Not the first kid to write to song about
This one I wrote for you

Hollywood hypocrisy
Mixed with the worst personality
Demand a gun free society
Wear your bodyguards and carrying
You probably set fire
Counting the economist denier
Going on about the greater good
Then tax dodging
But not filming in Hollywood
Narcissistic, shame resistant
Blame insistent hypocrites
They preach belief, they don't believe themselves
Music, religion and Hollywood sells
You are the worst person on earth

Should have to pin that on your shirt
Many other worthy candidates
But it's a tally you're going to get
You are the worst person on the planet
When you were born here, goddamnit
Not the first kid to write to song about
This one I wrote for you

Unite so hard against
But you partner with the biggest piece of corporation in the world
Acquiring millions of profits, exploiting the system
The same one you call evil
Family heir come down
How much does your make
I'm taking your worthy panels
Shut the f*ck up
You are the worst person on earth
The prophet of fear has made it very clear
From the words of liars and the false messiahs
They preach belief, they don't believe themselves
Music, religion and Hollywood sells

You are the worst person on earth
Should have to pin that on your shirt

Many other worthy candidates
But it's a tally you're going to get
You are the worst person on the planet
When you were born here, goddamnit
Not the first kid to write to song about
This one I wrote for you
Yeah, ow
