Ain't playing against stone if I gotta close to me
You oughta leave me alone
Put a barrel on his air like a phone
Let him say his last prayer then I air out his dome
Whats the hardest out for a reason
You was hardest for just a season
Why you think these niggas is happy that I'm a vegan
The longer got a longlist of niggas that I'm leavin'
Fuck around and make a new list
Two guns up in a two seater lets do this
But I really prefer a knife
Thats enormous shit, venomous shit
Ya niggas say you street but you sweeter than a cinnamon stick
When its late night watch who you playin gremlins with Whatup!

If you ain't with the shit, chill nigga you should fall back
