

That'll Be Enough

Styles P

Noah what up, let's get to it, as usual

You can feel the pain still jump for joy
Run through hell if I knew the highways the heavens did
I sold keen when I was unemployed
Lot of niggas dead so it seems that we never cared
Now that's far from the truth but its hard as a poor youth when you see mone y everywhere
Want a piece of the pie
You gotta make the crust
Bought the hammer new but you gotta tape it up
These are the rules nah I ain't make'em up
You got no pull like my weed when I ain't break it up I'm legit
But you pass a brick
I'm break it up break it down bag it in the Knicks
I'm shake it up
I will cut you if you play with me then I'm play the cut
A matter of fact I am stabilized staying in the cut
All I need is a J and water that'll be enough
All these rappers saying trash shit
That'll be enough (ghost)

All these rappers saying trash shit
That'll be enough
Got cash but I never said
That'll be enough
Smoke hash but I never said
That'll be enough
Got a lot more to say but
That'll be enough

Make it happen or watch it happen to someone else
I can burn fire and drown water on something else
Come from the PJs my nigga the poor Jedis
You can feel the force all you see is the Corvette's eyes
Gore-Tex rain suit where you sending the peen to I'm the satellite in the sky keep your head high
Come from under the ground a runaway train
Give you lyrical food for your spiritual weight gain
You can break the matrix my nigga and get June treats
I am the shadow when the sun and the moon meets
I can send my shadow out of the room
I am too deep
I am the real-life male version of Lucy
Told you little niggas you ain't ready for space ghost
If I take a walk when I sleep
Am I fake woke
Nah nigga I'm fake sleep
You ain't even using your brain
You a fake D
