

Age Of Entropia

Styx

Wait for the time
When a door springs open wide
And then run like the wind
But 'til then

Hide yourself away now
Hide yourself away
Behold the shadow of what you might become
If you choose to stay

Hide yourself away now
Hide yourself away
Behold the shadow of what you might become
If you choose to stay

Hide yourself away now
Hide yourself away
Behold the shadow of what you might become
If you choose to stay

Hide yourself away now
Hide yourself away
Behold the shadow of what you might become
If you choose to stay

Wait for the time...
