

Only You Can Decide

Styx

On the lake, waiting for the ice to break
Mindful of the move you make
It's starting to crack

Yesterday feels just like a lifetime away
What did you do and did you say when you had your fun?

Only you can decide your fate

Come on shake it off
You can start a brand new page
Don't be another one your age reaching for a gun

Only you can decide your fate
Only you can decide your fate

You can sweep away the broken glass
But you can't run away from your past

Only you can decide, only you can decide
Only you can decide your fate
