

She Knows

Styx

She knows the way to help me
Find a road that only I will see
This is a new adventure calling me out of my tree

She said:
The hour is closing on you
So grab the wheel and place your bets on me
We might get in a bit of trouble, worth every bit to be free

Oh I'm making up for lost time
Feel the sunshine, walk the straight line
I'm giving up the fight 'cause you're the only one for me

We lost all sense of direction
Road side prophets make no sense to me
With any luck, we'll find a way home
If that's the way it should be

I'm making up for lost time
Feel the sunshine, walk the straight line
I'm giving up the fight 'cause you're the only one for me

She knows the way to hear me
Find a song that matters most to me
She plays the grand piano only when I never See

Oh I'm making up for lost time
Feel the sunshine, walk the straight line
I'm giving up the fight, 'cause you're the only one
Yeah you're the only one, you are the only one

There will never be a day when I won't see
You're the only one for me
