Wish I didn't know you as a dumb kid
Wish you were just another pretty girl to pick
God, the times made us strangers, yeah they did
You don't even know I'm here
But I'm still there for you like years ago

Watching you grow up on the wrong fence side
Kid best friends, but now you have an appetite
Just because you're made of different parts, we're damned
To fall in love, it's his plan
But I'm still there for you

But you don't care if I stare
You wanna lay with me bare
You wanna play with my hair
But you can't stay with me here
But you don't care if I stare
You wanna lay with me bare
You wanna play with my hair
But you can't stay with me here

You say you're confused
You say you're gay (You say you're gay)
You say you're whatever you wanna be
You say you're confused
You say you're gay (You say you're gay)
You say you're whatever you wanna be

What do you wanna be?
You never talk to me
I still want company
What do you want from me?
You say it constantly
That you're in love with me
But we don't touch
I think you only see the friend in me

But you don't care if I stare
You wanna lay with me bare
You wanna play with my hair
But you can't stay with me here
But you don't care if I stare
You wanna lay with me bare
You wanna play with my hair
But you can't stay with me here

You wanna do things
That you've never done before
You're just acting like a whore
Not allowed to lock your door
Wanna reciprocate
But I'm walkin' on a wire
I just wanna see you smile
But you got me so damn tired

I'm just gonna wait
For you to get your fuckin' act up

Makin' all this trash up
Just to blow a month-due date, yeah
And I'm feelin' like we're cracked now
I'm never going back, no
We're only gonna end with hate

Wish I didn't know you as a dumb kid
Wish you were just another pretty girl to pick
God, the times made us strangers, yeah they did
You don't even know I'm here
But I'm still there for you like years ago

Watching you grow up on the wrong fence side
Kid best friends, but now you have an appetite
Just because you're made of different parts, we're damned
To fall in love, it's his plan
But I'm still there for you

But you don't care if I stare
You wanna lay with me bare
You wanna play with my hair
But you can't stay with me here
But you don't care if I stare
You wanna lay with me bare
You wanna play with my hair
But you can't stay with me here
