

This Dog

Subb

I hear you walking your breath refreshes me
I knock on your door to see if this is real
I see it all bluntly as you drive me by
This dog, is licking my ass
I feel I've seen this dog sometime before
I should have kicked but then I'm not so sure
I never thought that you would love this dog
And you disgust me even more
I can't remember The time I stumbled home
But there was that dog who stared into my eyes
A kick in The ass and then The mutt was flying
You woke up, and now I'm crying
I feel I've seen this dog sometime before
I should have kicked and now I know I'm sure
I never thought you'd leave me for this dog
And you disgust me even more
[Solo]
[Chorus x2]
