

Blackout

Sublime with Rome

Yeah yeah, yeah yeah yeah

I want nights where it feels so nice
Something a little photo
Right now, right now, right now
Let's do this right
Go slow while the moonlight
Is still shining
One day Imma let go
One day Imma let go

Everyone's using me
But maybe that's something I like
Yeah I've been on something since last month but I'm feeling alright (alright)
Maybe I'm blind to see
Maybe I'm losing my mind
Cus I've been on something since last month but I don't feel alright

It's me against myself
It's me against myself
I'm starting to blackout
I'm staring at the skies
I'm running from myself
I'm running from myself
I'm starting to blackout
I'm staring at the stars

Away (away)
Away (away)
I don't wanna keep running
I don't wanna keep running, running
Away (away)
Away (away)
I don't wanna keep running
I don't wanna keep running, running

Run through the night
Run through the night now (away)
Running away
Running away (away)
Run through the night
Run through the night now (away)
Running away
Running away

Get high when I'm feeling low
Only god knows
Some day, some day, some day I need to quit cold
Sometimes when I'm in head I'm fighting
Never gonna let go
Never gonna let go

I don't take Xanax but I drink just like I hate myself
I don't even know when to breach, maybe I'm all that I need

It's me against myself

It's me against myself
I'm starting to blackout
I'm staring at the skies
I'm running from myself
I'm running from myself
I'm starting to blackout
I'm staring at the stars

Away (away)
Away (away)
I don't wanna keep running
I don't wanna keep running, running
Away (away)
Away (away)
I don't wanna keep running
I don't wanna keep running, running

Run through the night
Run through the night now (away)
Running away
Running away (away)
Run through the night
Run through the night now (away)
Running away
Running away

It's me against myself
And no one else
It's me against myself
I'm starting to blackout
I've been staring at the stars
Away
Away
I don't wanna keep running
I don't wanna keep running now
Away
Away
I don't wanna keep running
I don't wanna keep running now

Run through the night
Run through the night now
Running away
Running away
Run through the night
Running through the night now
Running away
Running away now
