

Proof

Submersed

Breathe my angel
Breathe and hold your son
(Ours souls are filled as he's come to meet his makers)
Shed your sorrows
Feed your womb with love
(The time has come for us to kneel and praise the savior)

Blue, painted skies, an infinite daydream
I can't forget about you
You're my living proof
True, beating heart, my infinite lifeline
I can't forget about you
You're my living proof

Feel forgiveness
Fight you are the one
(With every victory our love shines brighter)
It's not easy
It's not always fun
(In the end the reward outweighs the latter)

Blue, painted skies, an infinite daydream
I can't forget about you
You're my living proof
True, beating heart, my infinite lifeline
I can't forget about you
You're my living proof

You
You captured what was a lost part of me
Renewing my faith
Look at the roots we have planted
Yea you

I can't forget about you
You're my living proof
True, beating heart, my infinite lifeline
I can't forget about you
You're my living proof
