

Simple Life

Submersed

Give me what I want
Give me what I need
There's a storm brewing up deep inside of me
No direction, nowhere to go
Till the lines slowly blur
No one's listening
Giving up wasn't part of the plan
Still the moment's at hand

Heaven save us
It's time for a stand
For every last women, child and man
Lord forgive us
We don't understand
Just how important this simple life is

When I look around
See a thousand smiles
Still a stone wall is forming inside of me
Life's profound in the ways we learn
Though my heart is ice cold, it's my soul that burns
I pray every night, everyday
That the dissidence stays

Heaven save us
It's time for a stand
For every last women, child and man
Lord forgive us
We don't understand
Just how important this simple life is
The love is in us
Trust forgiveness
The love is in us
Trust forgiveness
