

We All Make Mistakes

Submersed

To know you,
Is to know the love of an angel,
Sent from above,
To save me,
From all of the heartache I've known
To hold you,
Is to hold in my arms the forgiveness,
Of a compassionate heart,
To complete the pieces in this puzzle of life

We all make mistakes
In our lives that's the way,
It is so hold on to what is right
We all get the chance in our lives,
To make right
If I've hurt you,
I am sorry,
Forgive me,
Forgive me

To show you,
This hole in my heart
Is to show you what you filled from the start
With your love you, broke the chains that bound me
With the strings of the heavens that brought us together,
Leaves no doubt this will last forever,
Until the end of time

We all make mistakes
In our lives that's the way,
It is so hold on to what is right
We all get the chance in our lives,
To make right
If I've hurt you,
I am sorry,
Forgive me

I hear a voice on the winds of a whisper
It speaks to me,
To tell me where I've gone wrong,
It says "peace will never be achieved through silence".
Come, one day can you find a way to see.

We all make mistakes
In our lives that's the way,
It is so hold on to what is right
We all get the chance in our lives,
To make right
If I've hurt you,
I am sorry,
Forgive me
Forgive me
Forgive me
Forgive me
Forgive me
