Oh mother Oh father You gave me life You gave me death

Oh mother Oh father You loved me well You can't help me now

There is no escape.

Dark water is all around On the broken bridge Revere is bound

A dead-end maze Dark passageways Synapse collapse Reality break

There is no escape.

It's morning
Twelve hours of sleep
You won't believe the hours I keep

A veil is placed before my eyes I can't see myself I can't see their lies

There is no escape

I'm buried in this bag of skin With sham circuitry Where do I begin?

Oh mother Oh father You gave me life You gave me death

There is no escape.
