

Drowning

Suburban Tribe

I feel all this silence turning into noise
So slowly
It's getting so loud I will miss your voice
Pure and holy
And it gets so loud I can't hear
And I'm losing the far and the near
Without you I will now disappear
Disappear in your embrace
I feel all this silence turn into a void
That's growing
I'm stuck in an ending I cannot avoid
I'm choking
And it gets so close I can't see
And slowly getting inside you and me
Without you I will now disappear
Disappear in your embrace
I've been drowning in your arms
Mesmerized by your charm
I've been drowning in your arms
Can't reach the surface
I can't breathe
I'm in too deep
