Under your eyes in the city lights
Under your eyes in the city lights

Under your eyes in the city lights
Under your eyes in the city lights

You got little bit of sex in you
And that's all I wanna do
Girl, you're all I wanna do
Playing harmonies on your skin
Ooh, your silk-like hips
Those conscious lips as sexy as can be

Hold up, let me cool down first
Your warm kiss should quench my thirsty soul
Then I proceed on to the next step, baby
Busy up my hands, you see
We only got you and me
Your words are playful
So let me play it one more time

Under your eyes in the city lights
Under your eyes in the city lights
Your pleasure is my mission, babe

Under your eyes in the city lights
Under your eyes in the city lights
Your pleasure is my mission

It's painful, girl
The way you feel so smooth
Speak to me softly and I'll
I'll sing to you

It's painful, girl
The way you feel so smooth
Speak to me softly and I'll
I'll sing to you

Under your eyes in the city lights
Under your eyes in the city lights
Your pleasure is my mission, babe

Under your eyes in the city lights
Under your eyes in the city lights
Your pleasure is my mission, babe

Under your eyes in the city lights
Under your eyes in the city lights
