

TDLY (Homegrown Land)

Sudan Archives

I tell you again, I stuck to my plan
But holdin' it in won't fix our problems, man
Quote me, don't mock me
You way outta pocket
We was feelin' rocky so I told him, "Darling, get to hiking"
And to all my friends, I'm not trippin'
Have you ever been in love with your fucking best friend?
Sleepin' in the car, we don't wanna be separate
Runnin' from the opps 'cause we runnin' all red flags
But we seed a plant so it's all irrelevant
Gotta take a chance that you will never understand
And that stankness, yes, I got it from my mans
But that fat ass, yes, that's homegrown land (That's why)
Grown land, bitch (I do)
That's why I fuckin' do what I do (They don't love you)
You know these niggas don't fucking love you, bruh (That's why I do)
When was last time you needed dough and they was even there for you? (They don't love you)

I don't understand how I ended up in here
2AM, spendin' all my cash flow of the year
Sippin' on Heineken, gettin' passed bands to land on her
She told me, "Go with the flow"
Twirl on the floor lookin' like whirling dervishes
Almost caught the holy ghost in her sweet essence
Tryna get closer to God
Oh, my God, it's so hard
As I think to myself
"It's hard to understand
A man with a plan"
With a second chance
But his eyes half open
And the load is heavy
My wheel is steady
Just stick to the plan

That's why I do (They don't)
They don't love you (They don't)
That's why I do (They don't)
They don't love you (They don't)
(That's why I do)
(They don't love you)
(That's why I do)
(They don't love you)

Grown land, bitch (I do)
That's why I fucking do what I do (They don't love you)
You know these niggas don't fucking love you, bruh (That's why I do)
When was last time you needed dough and they was actually there for you? (They don't love you)
Grown land, bitch (I do)
That's why I fucking do what I do (They don't love you)
You know these niggas don't fucking love you, bruh (That's why I do)
When was last time you needed dough and they was actually there for you? (They don't love you)
Grown land, bitch (I do)
That's why I fucking do what I do (They don't love you)

You know these niggas don't fucking love you, bruh (That's why I do)
