

Floatin'

Sueco The Child

I got so much goin' on
That's why I be floatin'
Livin' in the moment
I think I was chosen
And when I write these songs
Lettin' out emotion
That is never spoken
'Cause my heart be broken
I think I'm goin' home
I just need a breather
Always got the heater
She know I don't need her
But she know that I'm wrong
You think that I taunt you
Diamond in the rough, that's why it's hard for me to want you
I think I don't want you

Weight, it's on my shoulders
I was young couldn't wait till I was older
Now I'm here and I can't live without the pressure
Need the paper like I need to fill a folder
And every time I feel like we be gettin' closer
I can't help but think about when it be over
It's why I always tell myself that I don't want you
When you know I feel a way you gettin' bolder

I got so much goin' on
That's why I be floatin'
Livin' in the moment
I think I was chosen
And when I write these songs
Lettin' out emotion
That is never spoken
'Cause my heart be broken
I think I'm goin' home
I just need a breather
Always got the heater
She know I don't need her
But she know that I'm wrong
You think that I taunt you
Diamond in the rough, that's why it's hard for me to want you
I think I don't want you

Walls closin' in and I feel I can't breath
Sometimes this shit ain't as good as it seems
Wish I could wake up one day from a dream, yeah
When I'm closin' in and I feel I can't breath
Sometimes this shit ain't as good as it seems
Wish I could wake up one day
I'm floatin', I'll fly away

So I tell myself to slide
I can't trust nobody but my family and my ride
Never let nobody know the shit that be inside
Keep my body numb and only way is stayin' high

Yeah, move quick, don't trip, know we get it all day

Used to chill and a flip when I was in the hallway
Won't forget the chase and now we gonna get it on Gettin' paid for sayin' words that's on a microphone

I got so much goin' on
I think I was chosen
I think I'm goin' home
She know I don't need her
But she know that I'm wrong
You think that I taunt you
Diamond in the rough, that's why it's hard for me to want you
I think I don't want you
(I think I don't want you)
