

June Rain

Suede

I'm an alien on the opposite side of the road
And you wave to me, despite the fact that I've let myself go
So I close my eyes and walk into the traffic flow
Walk into the traffic flow

In the June rain, well, I'll hang myself out to dry
In the June rain, God only knows it's hard to say goodbye
Well, I'll love you till July

In the hospital, you can sit with me and we'll watch the hours go
And you left me there like a fingerprint on your back window
If you held my hand and kissed me
Would I ever know?

In the June rain, well, I'll hang myself out to dry
In the June rain, God only knows it's hard to say goodbye
As the June raindrops scatter over us, we run inside
Well, I'll love you till July

In the June rain, well, I'll hang myself out to dry
In the June rain, God only knows it's hard to say goodbye
Well, I'll love you till July
I'll love you till July
Love you till July

It's hard to say goodbye
I'll love you till July
Love you till July
Love you
Till July

I'm an alien on the opposite side of the road
And you wave to me, despite the fact that I've let myself go
So I close my eyes and walk into the traffic flow
Walk into the traffic flow
