

Refugees

Suede

And we're all refugees
walking in sequence
dragging our feet
wiping the windows
hoping to please
all refugees

standing at the traffic lights threading through the hostile cars staring with our almond eyes not allowed in certain bars

yes, we're all refugees
drifting through doorways walking the streets
seeking asylum
safe from disease
we're all refugees

wearing other people's clothes threading through cars, motorbikes where we're going no one knows subjects ...

yes, we're all refugees
wiping the windows
hoping to please
no one can ... us
no one believes
yes, we're all refugees

yes, we're all refugees
living in pieces
drifting like leaves
...
illness, disease
yes, we're all refugees

from madagascar to india from ... to the outskirts of london and from manila to eastern europe as cardboard cities drifting ...
...
...
from downtown boston to central glasgow
...
