she'll come to her end locked in a car somewhere with exhaust in her hair

What's she called? I dunno, she's fucking with a slip of a man while the engine ran

And he said "She's not dead, she's gone away, gone away" he said

He said "She's not dead, just go away go away" he said

In the car he couldn't afford they found his made up name on he rankle chain so don't call, don't call her at home she's fucking with a slip of a man while the engine ran and he said "she's not dead, she's gone away gone away" he said he said "she's not dead, she's gone away gone away" he said "just gone away, gone away" he said she's gone away to someone else's bed
