

Delusions Of Mortality

Suffocation

Angelic, yet, ungodly beings
They are descending from unworldly dimensions
Conveying arcane scriptures of Omitted knowledge
Of their demise and creation
Everything changed
In this moment
All that was taught and all that we knew
Was a lie since we exit the womb

Adorning a shroud dim veil
Obscuring the reason
Of their demise and creation
Everything changed
In this moment

Beyond what we can comprehend
Conceived within the darkness
Denied divine transcendence
Amongst those who've decreed enslavement
Upon our eugenics
Encrypting the seed of creation
Distorting reality with illusions
The delusion of mortality

Forsaken deceitfully
No need to pray
We'll never reach enlightenment
Forever suffering
Imprisoned
Within

Oh, this is the awakening
Causing absolute insanity
Some things we should not know
As above so below

Death is but a doorway
Unto a new life
We shall all return again
Trapped inside this
Flesh
These delusion of mortality denied
