

Trust has failed
dark skies faded quickly i did not know then i bury pieces of you in shallow holes i will arrange a death by fire please save me this time based on your words of soiled truth and i will fade away for the chances you never got to know and my betrayal dark skies faded quickly i did not know
in my shallow grave i await betrayal embrace this pain built on my world its give or take when you play this game your time is up unscarred we break
silence forever silence
