I never felt so safe
A line I once told her Warm resting place
Her arm on my shoulder
you are the rock
you are the rake
you are the one when I watch myself
you are the rock
you are the rake
you are the one when I watch myself
we ran into a cave
when the wars came closer she turned into a cave
where it turned colder
you are the rock
you are the rake
you are the one when I watch myself
you are the rock
you are the rake
you are the one when I watch myself
you are the rock
you are the rake
you are the one when I watch myself
you are the rock
you are the rake
```
