It's OK, to go and make mistakes
It's OK, to break your promises
You're moving on anyway
I hate the way
It makes me feel inside
You promised me
You'd be all that I need
I wonder why you lied

Promises you made, coming back to haunt you Don't whisper in my ear you gotta learn to say goodbye I was in the wrong, but it doesn't really matter Don't whisper in my ear You gotta learn to say goodbye

You gave me time
To think about you and me
I hate the way you make me feel inside
I wonder why you lie

Promises you made coming back to haunt you Don't whisper in my ear you gotta learn to say goodbye I was in the wrong, but it doesn't really matter Don't whisper in my ear You gotta learn to say goodbye

(Duh-dah) I was breathing coz that's that the gauge was indicating While was blaming I was soon to be so implicated

Now i'm through with all the lies and pictures are back-dated

Almost lost my friendly feet coz boy i'm operating (uh-uh)

Promises you made coming back to haunt you Don't whisper in my ear you gotta learn to say goodbye I was in the wrong, but it doesn't really matter Don't whisper in my ear You gotta learn to say goodbye

Promises you made coming back to haunt you Don't whisper in my ear you gotta learn to say goodbye I was in the wrong, but it doesn't really matter Don't whisper in my ear You gotta learn to say goodbye
