

Love Me Like I'm Leaving

Sugarland

In the closet right there in the back
If you want it, I'll go get my bag
And I'll say it's the end of us
And you'll ask me if I love you
Well I must

I'll turn and walk right out the door
Like I've done a thousand times before
Why don't you show me I'm worth more
More than this one reason
Till you love me like I'm leaving

Yeah you watch me get into the car
Will you always let me get that far
And you'll stand with both hands on the hood
You think that I won't turn the key
But I could

I'll turn and run back in the door
Like I've done a thousand times before
Why don't you show me I'm worth more
More than just one reason
So many more but you don't see them
Till you love me like I'm leaving

Haven't made up my mind
Won't look back this time
I won't turn around again
So good at goodbyes
Don't look so surprised
This is where it's gotta end

So kiss me hard and let me go
Same old story, different ending though

I'll turn and walk right out the door
Like I've done a thousand times before
I'm gonna show you I'm worth more
So say your lines like you believe them
Baby one more time with feeling
You can love me like I'm leaving

Oh I'm leaving
Oh I'm leaving
Love me like I'm leaving
I'm leaving
You can love me like I'm leaving
I'm leaving
You can love me like I'm leaving

I'm gonna show you I'm worth more
I'm gonna show you, I'm gonna show you I'm worth...
(Love me like I'm leaving) More
I'm worth more
I'm worth more
