

Blame The Rain

suggi

Can I just blame the rain?
Can I just blame the rain?

Is it my fault I'm emotional?
They say I haven't been through just enough
Maybe if I ended it all
They'd really believe I hated it all

"What's the problem?"
I really don't know the problem
Thinkin' I could be what the problem is
And I'm sorry, I'm sorry

River flows on my face on a Sunday
(Not that I want to)
(Not that I want to)
Catchin' feels for the wrong, but I want to (Yeah so? I want to)
(Yeah so? I want to)
Home alone on a birthday, nobody
(I don't need a body)
(I don't need a party)
River flows on my face on a Sunday
(So on a Monday)
(So on a Tuesday)

Can I just blame the rain?
Can I just blame
Can I just blame the rain?

Got no education, and no proper job
Never on vacation and never in love
Growin' up hated routines, but here I am stuck
Everyday all I do is give in

Is it unfair do you think, that the world isn't flat?
The shit goes around and around and around
Is it unfair do you think, that the world isn't flat?
And who do I blame? Do I blame it on me?

"What's the problem?"
I really don't know the problem
Thinkin' I could be what the problem is
And I'm sorry, I'm sorry

River flows on my face on a Sunday
(Not that I want to)
(Not that I want to)
Catchin' feels for the wrong, but I want to (Yeah so? I want to)
(Yeah so? I want to)
Home alone on a birthday, nobody
(I don't need a body)
(I don't need a party)
River flows on my face on a Sunday
(So on a Monday)
(So on a Tuesday)

Can I just blame the rain?
Can I just blame
Can I just blame the rain?
