

ex best friend

suggi

When you were one of them hated
I would stand for happier you
When you're washin' out of the waters
I would dry my body too

I would show you how to love and tell you
How to be a friend
But instead you took it right to someone else
And let me go

Let me go, let me go
Let me go, let me go
Let me go, let me go
Let me go, let me go

I would show you how to love and tell you
How to a friend
But instead you took it right to someone else
And let me go

Let me go, go
Let me go, go
Let me go, go
I would show you how to love and tell you
How to a friend
But instead you took it right to someone else
And let me go

When I was lonely and faded
I would always run to you
You would tell me you're my friend and shit
But turn your back like that

I would show you how to love and tell you
How to be a friend
But instead you took it right to someone else
And let me go

Let me go, let me go
Let me go, let me go
Let me go, let me go
Let me go, let me go

I would show you how to love and tell you
How to a friend
But instead you took it right to someone else
And let me go

Let me go, go
Let me go, go
Let me go, go
I would show you how to love and tell you
How to a friend
But instead you took it right to someone else
And let me go

When you were one of them hated

I would stand for happier you
When you're washin' out of the waters
I would dry my body too
When I'm yellin' I don't mean no harm just take it like a man
I'll be comfort when you're tired
So don't ever let me go
