

When you don't wanna lie
Why, then why do they look away?
When I'm slower than the rest
Then it's all 'cause I'm overweight

"Like a bird" in your head
In my world, I'm on ground again
Born to ask how to learn
Then you learned how to graduate

I don't even know somebody happy to love me
I don't wanna be someone that works all day until they die

And I wish that I could stop the time
I just wanna be home
And I wish that I could pause the grind
Come give me somethin' to hold
And I never wanna waste the time asleep
Then I realize, how am I gonna dream?
And I wish that I could stop the time
I just wanna be home

When you're feelin' kinda stressed, kinda tired
You should walk away
When's the last break you gave, listened to what your body say?
When you run, do you run, or you run to the bigger pay?
All I want in my life is to live like I'm outta frame

I don't even know somebody happy to love me
I don't wanna be someone that works all day until they die

And I wish that I could stop the time
I just wanna be home
And I wish that I could pause the grind
Come give me somethin' to hold
And I never wanna waste the time asleep
Then I realize, how am I gonna dream?
And I wish that I could stop the time
I just wanna be home

And I wish that I could
(Home, home, home)
And I wish that I could
(Hold, hold, hold)
And I wish that I could
(Home, home, home)
And I wish that I could
(Hold, hold, hold)

And I wish that I could stop the time, I just want to be home
