suggi

The night is ending, I made it through
My belly is growling, oh blue so blue
Nobody loves me, but I love the view
The sun isn't helping, and neither is you

They say that I'm the one who'll make it
Whatever move I make they call me 'savage'
And I know that I more than deserve it
But I wish that I never deserve it, cause

I hate that I feel so lonely
Ceiling hooks don't even try to hold me
Fuck confidence, no I don't want it
So colorless, how do they do it?
Yeah, yeah

Why am I like this?
I just wanna be normal
Be the one that we've all seen, and love God
Same ol' same old
I just wanna be normal
Be the one that we've all seen, and love God

(Eh, eh, eh)

You're comin' down with me, my company
Yeah you keep me grounded, oh totally (Uh oh) U planned our burning like poetry
Love got me hating, cause I don't got you

They worry physical, but never mental
Can I talk and not be sentimental
I'll trade my voice for any brain for rental
Take my heart, I'm sick of being gentle

I hate that I feel so lonely
Ceiling hooks don't even try to hold me
Fuck confidence, no I don't want it
So colorless, how do they do it?
Yeah, yeah

Why am I like this?
I just wanna be normal
Be the one that we've all seen, and love God
Same ol' same old
I just wanna be normal
Be the one that we've all seen, and love God
