

On the Moon!

suggi

Another year over
Another off weight
A year without a shoulder
But I've been doing just fine
Not any wiser, just older
But not really fine like wine
You ask me how I've been
I've been doing just fine

I'm on the moon baby
Swimming with satelllites
But calling won't come through
Don't try to make it through
While I'm breathing my air
I'm on the moon baby
Swimming with satelllites
But calling won't come through
I've been going through changes
It's all been amazing
It's easy moving on

I feel sunshine raining on me
Spend on things I don't need
Glitter running on me
I got nobody to meet
Life tastes so goddamn sweet
Makes me weak in the knees
It's all that I wanna see
I love that I live as me

I walk the walk on my time to talk
Regret's for way too long ago
Tick by the clock, I'll tie the knot
One day I'll be on the radio
I walk the walk on my time to talk
Regret's for way too long ago
Tick by the clock, I'll tie the knot
One day I'll be on the radio

I'm on the radio, dancing on patios
I'll let the sun butter up my skin
I love the studio, pad my portfolio
Even better when I'm staying in, yeah yeah
Making lists and I won't look back
Mama one, daddy two's the last
Not gonna run to the ones that were never there
I mean well when I say "Yeah I'm ready for the bag"

I'm on the moon baby
Swimming with satelllites
While I'm breathing my air
I'm on the moon baby
I've been going through changes

It's all been amazing
Damn it's easy moving on

I feel sunshine raining on me

I'm on the moon baby
Swimming with satellites
But calling won't come through
While I'm breathing my air
I'm on the moon baby
I've been going through changes
I'm finally moving on

I feel sunshine raining on me
Spend on things I don't need
