

Thank You

suggi

Typical, I know
To always say that I'm so grateful, but I never spoke from heart

I'm suggi, hi, hello
Thought I was singin' to a wall 'till you just sang along with me

There's so many bad, bad people in the world
But I don't need to fight when I'm with you
Yeah, you're the reason I feel beautiful
Even when I'm dragged across the dirt

I've written music 'bout the bad
Sad but getting over them
But I've never said thank you
(Thank you, thank you)

Though I'm loved, and overwhelmed
I don't know what to say to them
But I've never said thank you

Bout a week ago
I was stuck in feels some people wanted me to crumble to

Thank you, now I know
You found me buried in a million roses pickin' at the thorns

There's so many bad, bad people in the world
But I don't need to fight when I'm with you
Yeah, you're the reason I feel beautiful
Even when I'm dragged across the dirt

Hoo-hoo

I've written music 'bout the bad
Sad but getting over them
But I've never said thank you
(Thank you, thank you)

Though I'm loved, and overwhelmed
I don't know what to say to them
But I've never said thank you

I just wanna thank you, but more genuine, yeah
Thank you, with all innocence, yeah
I just wanna thank you, and thank you
(Thank you, thank you)

Just wanna
Thank you but times infinite, yeah
Thank you without lookin' cool-cool
I just wanna thank you, and thank you
(Thank you, thank you)

I've written music 'bout the bad
Sad but getting over them
But I've never said thank you
(Thank you, thank you)

Though I'm loved, and overwhelmed
I don't know what to say to them
But I've never said thank you
