

Ur Mom

suggi

It's been a long year full of thinking
I've been out here thinking
Maybe I'm the one that's missing out on life lessons
Maybe people change in ways I never imagined
I told you all my fears then you scared with them all, yeah yea h

Twenty four, I feel sped through the year
Understand the taste of Budweiser beer
I guess I owe it all to you but make it clear
You didn't do shit, I never said I learned at all

I miss your dog, his little runny nose
Does to your mom even know I'm not around anymore?
Tell your mom, ha ha ha ha
Tell your lovely mom, ha ha ha ha
You got just your dog, you got nothing else to show
Fuck your dumb mom, you think I really wouldn't know?
Ha ha ha ha
La la la la la, ha ha ha ha

Make it make sense, why your mom knows that I'm not a shower
That was fucking low but I was taught to stoop lower Putting up a front, why'd you even get me flowers?
They're never meant for me, god you're such a little coward
Ooh ooh, I know that you know you messed up
How you Christian and you lie? Go fess up
Maturity is letting it go
'Cause I know that karma's on my back up

Twenty four, I feel sped through the year
Understand the taste of Budweiser beer
I guess I owe it all to you but make it clear
You didn't do shit, I never said I learned at all

I miss your dog, his little runny nose
Does to your mom even know I'm not around anymore?
Tell your mom, ha ha ha ha
Tell your lovely mom, ha ha ha ha
You got just your dog, you got nothing else to show
Fuck your dumb mom, you think I really wouldn't know?
Ha ha ha ha
La la la la la, ha ha ha ha
