

Bloody Ground

Suicidal Angels

Burning down your destiny
I know the game
Blood, fire, pain
A life lived in misery
Stare with empty eyes
Words, truth, lies

Let there be darkness
Let there be light
Blast ripping sound
I'm fallen on
Bloody ground

A sacrifice to nothing
a place not meant to be treason, prison, I'm free
The world loses its shadow
It is a stink of death
Lord, master, i beg for breath

Let there be darkness
Let there be light
Blast ripping sound
I'm fallen on Bloody ground

Another hound
On bloody ground

Burning down your destiny
I put you down with shame
Blood, fire, pain
A life lived in misery
Stare with empty eyes
Words, truth, lies

Let there be darkness
Let there be light
Blast ripping sound
I'm fallen on Bloody ground
