

Profane Prayer

Suicidal Angels

Dark are the nights
Darker the paths
Darkest the fights, the fights that we fought
I can't see the dawn
Down goes one more pawn
Submitted, enlisted, long before gone

Pawn or a queen
You both serve the king
Nobody knows what tomorrow shall bring
It only began
It will be no fun
Millions of rats will be flashed off the can
Lizards and wizards
Them faces of retards
Lives surrendered to the kingdom of treasons
Now comes a life
The time to thrive
Deeper the roots, brighter the light

Brighter the light

Life's betrayer
Lives in danger
Life's betrayer
Profane prayer

Nailed to the floor, no escape door
Nowhere to run or to hide
Eyes bleed once more, screams shout no more
Is it Death or paradise?

Or paradise

Life's betrayer
Lives in danger
Life's betrayer
Profane prayer

I manifest the truth and freedom burns inside me
Crucified the fools, there is no god to guide me
Parasites, hypocrites and ghouls walk along beside me
You'll listen to my footsteps and wished to have denied me

Burns inside me
Gods to guide me
Walk beside me
Then Death!

Dark are the nights
Darker the paths
Darkest the fights, the fights that we fought
I can't see the dawn
Down goes one more pawn
Submitted, enlisted, long before gone

Life's betrayer

Lives in danger
Life's betrayer
Lives in danger
Betrayer
Profane prayer
