

Two Worlds Collide

Suicidal Tendencies

In my space, you can't get in
In my head, you don't exist
In my world, you don't belong
In my hood, you're fucking dead

In your world, I promise to pull it in
In your world, I'm struggling to make it all make sense
In your world, your words try to suffocate mine
In your world, you change the rules as you go

In my thoughts (In my thoughts!)
You scream in pain!
In my dreams (In my dreams!)
You fucking die!
In my hate (In my hate!)
You fucking burn!
In my hood (In my hood!)
You're fucking dead!

Once again, I promise to pull it in
Once again, I'm struggling to make it all make sense
Once again, your words try to suffocate mine
Once again, you change the rules as you go

You can take the boy out of the hood
Can't take the hood out of the boy
You can take the boy out of the hood
But you can't take the hood out of the boy
What up, punk?
Gonna fuck it up!

In my schools (In my schools!)
You fucking fail!
In my church (In my church!)
You go to hell!
In my courts (In my courts!)
You're in contempt!
In my law (In my laws!)
You go to jail!
In my jails (In my jails!)
There's no parole!
In my hood (In my hood!)
You don't get out alive!
