

The Gates of Oblivion

Suicide Commando

Welcome to the blackened side of life
Take my cold, dead hand and lead me into your light
Let me steal your breath to hear my eternal night
Taste my body, my blood and let me see through your sight

Welcome to a new and shaded dawn
Onward through the gates and into oblivion
Abandon all of your hope, relinquish your faith
Surrender they will and accede to your fate

[Chorus]

Come to me, come to me
Let the heathen come to me
Come to me, come to me
Let the evil come to me
Possessed by the devil
Into hell, through the gates of oblivion
Possessed by the devil
Cast away, through the gates of oblivion
Come to me, come to me
Let the heathen come to me
Come to me, come to me
Let the devil take you down
Take you down
Take you down
