

Kill Forever

Suicide Silence

Facing the end
Who gives a shit
Give into hate
Give it to me

Embers burn, skin will boil
Blood will spill, blood will spoil
Knuckles clenched, cracking skulls
Treads are worn from crushing bones

Fight forever
Kill each other
Fight each other
Kill forever

Hatred critical mass
This execution won't be my last
Infinite force, infinite death
Murder on my mind with every breath
Cross hairs filled with victims
Battleground a killing system
Hunt you all till there's nothing left

Bloodthirsty humanity, just want to rot
Falling for your weakest thoughts
Knuckles clenched, cracking skulls
Treads are worn from crushing bones

Fight forever
Kill each other
Fight each other
Kill forever

Constant conflict will never own me
I'm even stronger than you could ever think
I was born in torture seething in my soul
You cannot kill me

This is living
This is thriving
This is thriving
This is thriving

Say it together, kill each other
Say it together, kill forever

Kill each other forever
