

From The Beginning Of Time Until The End Of Time

$uicideboy$

An evil destroyed to an extraordinary degree, and prospered and performed as well, and he's seen as a sign of eternities. We are living in apocalyptic times. Global warming, and a rising nuclear threat, among nations that really scare us. The whole Middle East plagued by [?] and jihad and all of these kinds of things. These are not easy times to live in.

Rip out a piece of my rib and give it to a bitch
As the snake whispers to her "Ruby does not fucking exist"
So I bit off the head then I chewed it and spit it out
Fell to the ground as I puked up and flipped around
Scales started forming I think that now I am the snake
I am the one they call plague who will never escape
Will forever remain
The omega
The alpha
The chosen one sent here to reign
Who saves all the slaves?
Lil Plague breaking chains
Jesus christ was never raised from the dead
He rots away
Burn a church and watch the flames
Autumn embers turn to grey
Wooden crosses in decay
The flock of sheep now fucking slain

Thanks, Tom. Police are requesting that if you see this little 8 year old boy, you immediately kill him and burn his body. That's all for now.

Run up with the motherfucking MAC
On attack, shoot back, gat gat, grrra, he flat
Leave them bodies where they lay
Let they mothers cry and pray
Nina, nina, oh nina
I need you bad up in my life
Them heathens that scheming they breathing
Look dead or something like demons, woah
Smash a 40 ounce on the cop cars
Probably just popped 'bout five bars
Sipping hydro, got a bad cough
Indica dripping down the cigar
It's that dope head, drug fiend, mug mean, lonely
Shut the fuck up, y'all annoy me

Many prophecy believers view the end game as already begun. The focus that the world has now on the lies of the Anti-Christ and the return of Christ, I believe the board is set and the piec es are about to move.
