

If nothing really matter, what's the point of it all
Drown inside your sorrows, better pray you don't fall
I see a mission in my way, there's nothing that'll make me stop
I had a vision you were with me for the end of it all

And when I'm dying will you cry or will you keep moving on
And when I'm flying will you fly or will you try to hop on
You make your mind up by tonight I can not wait anymore
I'll find you hiding in your mattress with a lil' bit of hope

Only time I hate you is when I get in my feels
Now you tryna break through all the walls I've healed
Nothing lasts for ever take your shot while you here
Baby I'm angel with my wings don't you fear

I got your back any time
I'll fight your fears at your comply
I'm in your dreams while you in my mind
A kiss in your head than I say goodbye

Why are you waiting on me
Why do I fell so lonely
Why do I need white on me
Why can't I depend just on me

If nothing really matter, what's the point of it all
Drown inside your sorrows, better pray you don't fall
I see a mission in my way, there's nothing that'll make me stop
I had a vision you were with me for the end of it all

And when I'm dying will you cry or will you keep moving on
And when I'm flying will you fly or will you try to hop on
You make your mind up by tonight I can not wait anymore
I'll find you hiding in your mattress with a lil' bit of hope

Only time I hate you is when I get in my feels
Now you tryna break through all the walls I've healed
Nothing lasts for ever take your shot while you here
Baby I'm angel with my wings don't you fear
