

be not afraid

suisside

Run away from the strays
Hide inside your hideaway
You're now safe, be not be afraid
Who is who, and what's the time?
Am I dead or am I blind?
Is there someone in my mind?
Oh, oh
Oh, oh
Darling, you'll always be mine

There they go
Doing as they're told
Mad and lost
Miles from home

Dancing under his oath
Happily dancing under his oath
Happily dancing under his oath
Happily dancing under his oath
Dancing under his oath
Happily dancing under his oath
Kill your son, son
Dancing under his oath
Happily dancing under his oath
Happily dancing under his oath
Kill your son, son

Oh, oh, oh, oh
Oh, oh, oh, oh

And you wait for something that will never come
The lovely princess turned into a whore
Her magic castle wasn't big enough
She sat down and waited for her prince to come home
And I know that I'm wrong
And I know that I'm high
And I know that I'm wrong
And I know that I'm high
High, high, high, high, high, high, high, high
