

born again

suisside

I don't sleep for long
I don't pray no more
Read my mind and I'll read yours
Bless your heart, we'll be reborn

Born again
Born again
We'll be born again

Keep that same warm smile of yours
Stick a knife right through my skull Forgive my lies pardon me for
All I've done and what's to come

Born again
Born again
And I'm born again

Everybody bleeds
And I'm as worse as he is
And he's as good as me
I wake up and I'm dreaming
God's comfort we seek Oh, it must have a meaning
But there's something in the way
Take the time you need

Oh, oh, born again
Oh, oh, born again
Oh, oh, born again
