

faking smiles

suisside

Not one more word, girl you're breaking down
I got so much hope you'll see me faking smiles
Took a couple turns but I'm still in doubt
I don't play those games, baby there's no foul
I won't take the blame for the things you did last time, bitch pay your fine
I won't take the shame for a bitch that won't treat me right, t ime to pull a fine

I can tell you see me as special
I can tell you see me as a treasure
I got a couple lines applying pressure
Even though I love her I still hate her
I wanna be the one you try to love
I wanna be the voice when you're alone
I wanna be the place you call a home
I ain't got a fucking choice I'll make this work

I can tell you see me as special
I can tell you see me as a treasure
I got a couple lines applying pressure
Even though I love her I still hate her
I wanna be the one you try to love
I wanna be the voice when you're alone
I wanna be the place you call a home
I ain't got a fucking choice I'll make this work

Not one more word, girl you're breaking down
