

First Sight

suisside

I don't even know you, but I love you
First sight, baby, I was told you wanted love too
When I met the reaper I was told to sin everyday
Tell the heavens I don't know you
Tell everybody that I know I've been gone
And I won't be back till I'm counting it up
Tell everybody that I know I've been lost
And I cannot seem to find my way back home

And I cannot seem to find my way back home
And I seem to do a line when I'm on my own
Baby, I can never lie I'm a real life punk
Baby, I can never die, I got too much blow
I'm a prick in real life, don't you get too close
I'm the demon in your eyes when you got them close
You can feel it down your spine when I break my own
You can see it in my eyes, I don't give two fucks

I don't even know you, but I love you
First sight baby I was told you wanted love too
When I met the reaper I was told to sin everyday
Tell the heavens I don't know you
Tell everybody that I know I've been gone
And I won't be back till I'm counting it up
Tell everybody that I know I've been lost
And I cannot seem to find my way back home

Cope with a hand out, we got a man down
I took a Xan now, I understand now
Watch who you friend now, what is the plan now?
Fuck what they say 'bout, they getting takedown

I don't wanna to forget you now, but I rather not let you down
I don't wanna to forget you now, but I rather not let you down

I don't even know you, but I love you
First sight, baby, I was told you wanted love too
When I met the reaper I was told to sin everyday
Tell the heavens I don't know you
Tell everybody that I know I've been gone
And I won't be back till I'm counting it up
Tell everybody that I know I've been lost
And I cannot seem to find my way back home
