suisside

I can do it all, they're gonna hate me regardless
I can put a show for your bitch and she'll like it
Giving me your all, I ain't breaking my silence
I don't tell em shit, I just hope they don't find it

Girl, I got my brothers, you don't gotta worry about me
Make a hundred dollars just to show you that I'm working
I've been putting everything, they looking at me smiling
Know that I'ma make it for my mother ain't nobody

Fall right through me, I'll pursue
I'm a young boy fooling
Who you choose
Let the pain consume me
Let the x come through
Let my friends see through me
I ain't changed on you

Don't matter, it's whatever I'ma make it by myself
I let you be my everything, you let me be a waste
Raining that's my weather, wrote a letter to myself
Don't matter it's whatever I still got that fenny belt

Stuck in a dream (stuck in a dream)
You're falling for me (falling for me)
Pray for my sins (pray for my sins)
Pray I don't live (pray I don't live)
I'm an angel my wings, I got em covered in lean
I tell my problems to leave, I tell the devil come in
