

lonely god

suicide

Lonely God, only one
Hold me close and I will never desert you
Only one, lonely God
Hold me close and I'll forever belong to you
Only one, lonely God
Hold me close and I will never desert you
Lonely God, only one
Hold me close and I'll forever belong to you, Lord

Welcome back to your imaginary world
Now at ease, forget the place you hate the most Here you're free, there's no one anywhere
But inside your mind there's someone trapped behind your eyes

You won't escape from this reality
Not if you cry, not if you bleed
You eat my life away, piece by piece
You'll find another pray the day you're done with me

Come back into your imaginary world
Found some peace, now I can finally be alone
Me with me and no one else but dirty thoughts
I with my many regrets and twisted mind

Rott away, I hope you slip and die
Go away, I wish you'll loose your mind
Stay away from everything that's mine
Pray again and then you'll feel alright

Oh, oh, my Lord
Oh, oh, my Lord

Lonely God, only one
Hold me close and I will never desert you
Lonely one, only God
Hold me close and I'll forever belong to you
Only one, lonely God
Hold me close and I will never desert you
Lonely God, only one
Hold me close and I'll forever belong to you
