Darling, hold me close
I shouldn't let it go, I shouldn't let it go
Stared into the ceiling and fell to the floor
Should've let it go I should've let it go

Desiccate
Deciding where to lay (Oh oh)
Dissipate
They're setting off the

Atom bomb beneath your home
Atom bomb beneath your home (Oh oh)
I stared into the ceiling and fell to the floor
I should've let it go, I should've let it go

Desiccate
Deciding where to lay (Oh oh)
Dissipate, my soul

I don't like to
But I hurt, myself, at times
I don't like to
But I hurt, myself, at times
I don't like to
But I hurt, myself, sometimes
I don't want to, harm myself
It hurts, but that's the only way
I know to reach the heart

Darling, hold me close
I shouldn't let it go, I shouldn't let it go
Stared into the ceiling and fell to the floor
Should've let it go I should've let it go

Desiccate
Deciding where to lay (Oh oh)
Dissipate, my soul

Crumble and break down
Into million pieces
I break down
Into million pieces

Darling
Darling
Hold tight
