

I'm in search of the feeling that took me away
Can you take me to earth, I got one thing to say I don't care h oe
Lose all your time, while I'm lost off some yayo, that doesn't matter to me

I got bout an eight it's inside of my jeans
I got booze full of blood, you can follow my leap to the hell h ole Thousands of souls looking up as you hang on Don't let em read all your sins

She flew by side and she told me to get out the building (she t old me to get out)
She came in the night off a pill, I was fucking her dearly
Don't tell me to die girl, I heard you and saw you so clearly (
heard you and saw you)
Stay in my room, making songs while I'm smoking serverly

Got a tab on my tongue, it's breaking I'm quaking
My heads off the walls
It's taking it's time, but it won't be too long
I lean back and cry, while my eyes slowly close I'm here now I'm gone

She flew by side and she told me to get out the building (she t old me to get out)
She came in the night off a pill, I was fucking her dearly
Don't tell me to die girl, I heard you and saw you so clearly (
heard you and saw you)
Stay in my room, making songs while I'm smoking serverly

I'm in search of the feeling that took me away
Can you take me to earth, I got one to say I don't care hoe
Lose all your time, while I'm lost off some yayo, that doesn't
