

I didn't wanna see her, but I saw her again
Same old smile, put the weight in my chest
Girl, I know it's been a while, but I know you the same
Even though it's been a while, I can tell you ain't changed
Got the same old tricks up your sleeve
Got the same old tricks I've seen (yeah)
Got some fake ass friends on your team
Got the same old stains on your sheets

Show me, your darkest secrets
Girl, show me, what really made you fall
Show me your fantasies, girl hold me
And make me feel alone
I can tell you're down bad
I can tell you're down bad
I can hear you screaming through my walls
If you ever find out, if you ever find out
Hope that you can see me as your all

I didn't wanna see her, but I saw her again
Same old smile, put the weight in my chest
Girl, I know it's been a while, but I know you the same
Even though it's been a while, I can tell you ain't changed
Got the same old tricks up your sleeve
Got the same old tricks I've seen (yeah)
Got some fake ass friends on your team
Got the same old stains on your sheets

Show me, your darkest secrets
Girl, show me, what really made you fall
Show me your fantasies, girl hold me

I can tell you're down bad
I can hear you screaming through my walls
If you ever find out, if you ever find out
Hope that you can see me as your all

I didn't wanna see her but I saw her again
Same old smile, ay
