

The Strangers

suisside

Light the fire, close the blinds
The strangers are coming to take your life
You better sit in silence, shut your eyes
The strangers are coming to take your life and I don't mind

Oh, oh, oh
Oh, oh, oh

The strangers are coming to take your life, oh
The strangers are coming to take your life and I don't mind

Dear lonely God, our only savior
Please hold me close, don't let my faith go
I've fallen victim to your prayer
I'm not the only one, I've met her, oh

The strangers are coming to take your life, oh
The strangers are coming to take your life and I don't mind

Light the fire, close the blinds
The strangers are coming to take your life
You better sit in silence, shut your eyes
The strangers are coming to take your life
And I don't mind

Oh, oh, oh
Oh, oh, oh

The strangers are coming to take your life, oh
The strangers are coming to take your life, oh
The strangers are coming to take your life, oh
The strangers are coming to take your life and I don't mind
